	3	An application registration card issued by the Home Office stating that the holder is permitted to take the employment in question, together with a Positive Verification Notice from the Home Office Employer Checking Service.
	4	A Positive Verification Notice issued by the Home Office Employer Checking Service to the employer or prospective employer, which indicates that the named person may stay in the UK and is permitted to do the work in question.

STEP 2  Check	You must check that the documents are genuine and that the person presenting them is the prospective employee or employee, the rightful holder and allowed to do the type of work you are offering.
				Yes	No	N/A
	1	Are photographs consistent across documents and with the person's appearance?
	2	Are dates of birth correct and consistent across documents?
	3	Are expiry dates for time-limited permission to be in the UK in the future i.e. they have not passed (if applicable)?
	4	Have you checked work restrictions to determine if the person is able to work for you and do the type of work you are offering? (For students who have limited permission to work during term-time, you must also obtain, copy and retain details of their academic term and vacation times covering the duration of their period of study in the UK for which they will be employed.)
	5	Are you satisfied the document is genuine, has not been tampered with and belongs to the holder?
	6	Have you checked the reasons for any different names across documents (e.g. marriage certificate, divorce decree, deed poll)? (Supporting documents should also be photocopied and a copy retained.)

STEP 3  Copy	You must make a clear copy of each document in a format which cannot later be altered, and retain the copy securely, electronically or in hardcopy. You must copy and retain:
	1	Passports: any page with the document expiry date, nationality, date of birth, signature, leave expiry date, biometric details and photograph, and any page containing information indicating the holder has an entitlement to enter or remain in the UK and undertake the work in question.
	2	All other documents: the document in full, both sides of a biometric residence permit. You must also record and retain the date on which the check was made.

STEP 4  Justification	Justification - know the type of excuse you have
	If you have correctly carried out the above 3 steps you will have an excuse against liability for a civil penalty if the above named person is found working for you illegally. However, you need to be aware of the type of excuse you have as this determines how long it lasts for, and if, and when you are required to do a follow-up check. The documents that you have checked and copied are from:
	List A	You have a continuous statutory excuse for the full duration of the person's employment with you. You are not required to carry out any repeat right to work checks on this.
	List B	Group 1	You have a time-limited statutory excuse which expires when the person's permission to be in the UK expires. You should carry out a follow-up check when the document evidencing their permission to work expires.
	Group 2	You have a time-limited statutory excuse which expires six months from the date specified in your Positive Verification Notice. This means that you should carry out a follow-up check when this notice expires.

You must obtain original documents from either List A or List B of acceptable documents for a manual right to work check.

 Home Office	Home Office ONLINE right to work checking service

Currently, the online checking service supports checks in respect of those who hold:

Documents checked ONLINE	Yes	No	N/A
✚ a biometric residence permit; or
✚ a biometric residence card; or
✚ status issued under the EU Settlement Scheme; or ✚ status issued under the points-based immigration system; or ✚ British National Overseas (BNO) visa; or ✚ Frontier Worker permit

There are three basic steps to conducting an online right to work check:

1. use the Home Office online right to work checking service (the 'View a job applicant's right to work details' page on GOV.UK) in respect of an individual and only employ the person, or continue to employ an existing employee, if the online check confirms they are entitled to do the work in question;
2. satisfy yourself that any photograph on the online right to work check is of the individual presenting themselves for work; and
3. retain a clear copy of the response provided by the online right to work check (storing that response securely, electronically or in hardcopy) for the duration of employment and for two years afterwards.

More information on how to conduct a manual and online check can be found in guidance at GOV.UK/government/collections/right-to-work-checks-employer-guidance
